

A1 is an author-compatibility clipping ablation that preserves the author's double-cone primitive and cone-miss-to-box fallback; it is not a fixed-domain or reconstruction result.

Gray bands mark views with nonzero changes. Deterministic ray census; no statistical error bars.